

CONSERVATION IN PROGRESS

In accordance with the PA Department of Conservation & Natural Resources recommendations, Detweiler Park is undergoing essential invasive species control through mechanical removal and targeted herbicide application to protect and restore native habitats. The Friends of Detweiler Park have received a grant from the Natural Resources Conservation Services to remove targeted invasive species within the park over the next 4 years.

Detweiler Park will remain a safe area for hiking while foresters are at work.

For questions or more information, contact:
kharbert@dauphincounty.gov
717-780-6701
www.detweilerpark.org

